

Wayne Smith Leadership Award Application

The Wayne Smith Leadership Award was established “To be used at the discretion of the Director of the School to support leadership of professional projects of student organizations in the School and/or to support student leaders who participate in formal leadership development activities such as an administrative internship or a student leadership training program.” The award is intended to defray the cost of activities associated with a professional project led by an individual student, or costs associated with activities undertaken by an individual student to develop their own leadership skills.

Name: _____ Major: _____

UF Credit Hours Earned: _____ UF GPA: _____

UFID: _____ E-mail: _____

Current Mailing Address: _____

Leadership Activities during the last two years (include names of organizations and offices held)

Essay: In 300 words or less, describe a professional activity that you would like to lead, or a professional development opportunity in which you would like to participate. Include a discussion of why this is a good activity, who would benefit, and what outcomes might result from the activity.

Budget: Please provide a budget request of $1,000 or less for the activity described in the essay. Include major categories such as travel, lodging, materials, etc. Expenses will be reimbursed with proper receipts and documentation.